About You

We're looking for an expert in their field, someone who has significant experience in a wide range of painting and decorating projects and works, and who takes pride in completing a job to an exceptional standard. Many of our sites operate from early morning to late evening, 7 days a week, so you will need to be able to manage and coordinate works in a busy operational site, being prepared to work around the facilities operations.

You will be at least Level 2 qualified in Painting & Decorating. Some experience and knowledge of a range of construction matters and building regulations would be helpful, but don't worry if you don't have this as we can provide training.

Our ideal person will be familiar with reading and interpreting designs and drawings, and will be able to use these to work out the most cost effective way to deliver a project without sacrificing quality or standards, offering expert guidance and advice along the way.

You will need to have experience in all decoration methods from mixing and matching paints to hanging wallpaper, prepping areas for decorating, and undertaking basic building works associated with decorating.

We pride ourselves on our teamwork, so you'll need to be someone who's prepared to get stuck in to get the job done, and who can build positive working relationships with others.
